If your living allowance payment does not arrive by the date listed, ask your supervisor to contact the Corporation State Office.

You must receive your living allowance by direct deposit unless that would cause a hardship. If you believe using direct deposit would cause a hardship, contact your Corporation State Office for approval. Living allowances received by US Treasury checks will arrive approximately five days after the direct deposit date. To set up direct deposit, contact your State Office or your financial institution for a Direct Deposit Sign-Up form or instructions on how to do it through the Member Portal.

Pay dates may differ if you are paid through a grant given to your sponsoring organization.
